

JOURNEY IN INK 知己。墨。若悟

2- 7 AUG 2014

A solo ink exhibition by Chi Pin Lay 纪滨丽, a child sponsor who just wants to do a bit more.

gallery.ourf.sg

With Da, Kirivong ADP,
Cambodia, 2012

"A passionate educator and budding artist, Pin Lay has been an inspiring supporter since 2009. Pin Lay is also a person of excellence and outdoes herself at every project she has had for World Vision. She is wholeheartedly committed to helping the world's poorest children through World Vision." - Foo Pek Hong (CEO World Vision International)

Official Beneficiary:

Initiated by:

Supported by:

新加坡 顧氏 公会
GAN CLAN SINGAPORE

The French Table

WEIN & VIN
Your Specialist in German and French

360 Education
Imagine • Create • Learn

Kirivong ADP, Cambodia, 2012

2-7 Aug 2014 The Arts House

1 Old Parliament Lane, Singapore 179429

2 Aug Opening Night : 7pm -10pm

3-7 Aug: 10am - 6pm

Guest-of-Honour: Mr Terence Quek
CEO, Emergenetics International-Asia

50% of the proceeds will go towards helping children in World Vision ADPs.

Pin Lay is An Educator, Speaker, Joy Ambassador, Coach and accidental Artist. Her art pieces have travelled to Bhutan, Cambodia, Myanmar and Zambia. Her art works are sold at Gallery@OURF, Singapore Botanic Gardens and The Arts House.

Pin Lay has been a volunteer with World Vision since 2009. She has 6 sponsored children in Cambodia, Jerusalem, Myanmar, Nepal, and Zambia.

Her artistic inclinations are from her late maternal grandfather, Mr Gan Tiong Huat, who used to bring her mother and aunts to paint by the Esplanade. He was an adopted son of Mr Gan Eng Seng, a pioneer and philanthropist in Singapore. Gallery@OURF is a social initiative by OURF Consultancy LLP.